SCOPE OF THE POLICY

This Policy provides a framework for ensuring that official records and documents are adequately maintained and protected. This policy covers all records and documents created, received, managed and retained by the Company in any format or medium. The records which are not required to be retained permanently shall be disposed off according to this Policy. This Policy covers records retained at the Company’s own location and/or at the locations of the Registrars and Share Transfer Agents appointed by the Company.

AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITY

Pursuant to the Listing Regulations, this Policy has been established and approved by the Board of Directors in its meeting held on 12th February, 2016.

GENERAL

Notwithstanding anything contained in this policy, the Company shall ensure compliance with any additional requirements as may be prescribed under any laws/regulations either existing or arising out of any amendment to such laws/regulations or otherwise and applicable to the Company, from time to time.

CLASSIFICATION OF RECORDS

Based on the requirement and for the purpose of effective management, the period for which the records of the Company shall be maintained have been classified into following categories:

- I. Documents whose preservation shall be permanent in nature as given in Annexure A attached to this Policy.
- II. Documents whose preservation shall be at least for 8 years after completion of the relevant transactions as given in Annexure B attached to this Policy.

III. Documents other than those specified in Annexure A or Annexure B, which are required to be maintained as per statutes after completion of the relevant transactions as given in Annexure C attached to this Policy.

Provided further that the Company may keep the documents as specified above in electronic mode.

While prescribing different time periods for preservation of records, the following aspects have been taken into account:

- (a) Compliance with statutory and regulatory requirements.
- (b) Requirements of SEBI/RBI/MCA officials to have access to certain records.
- (c) Requirements of internal and external auditors to have access to certain records.

The documents or records not covered by this Policy shall be maintained by the Company for the time period specified for their preservation under any statute or regulation, for the time being in force.

If a law suit or any other proceeding involving the Company is pending or reasonable foreseeable, the documents relevant to such litigation or proceeding shall be retained and preserved as per the directions of the Court, Tribunal or Adjudicating Authorities. All retention periods under the policy shall be suspended with respect to such documents.

RESPONSIBILITY

The head of department will be responsible for the maintenance, preservation and destruction of records pertaining to the respective departments.

As per Rule 28(1) of Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014, the Managing Director, Company Secretary or any other director or officer of the company as the Board may decide, shall be responsible for the maintenance and security of electronic records.

All staff and management of the Company shall assist in implementing this Preservation Policy as appropriate to their respective roles and responsibilities.

LOCATION OF RECORDS

As mandated by the Companies Act, 2013 or under any other statute, certain records shall be located at the registered office of the Company. The records for which no specific place has been specified under any statute may be maintained at the corporate office of the Company or at any other place as may be, decided by the officers of the Company considering their utilization and usefulness.

RECORD RETENTION SCHEDULE

The records referred to in Annexure A of this Policy shall be maintained permanently and the records which are required to be preserved permanently on the website of the Company shall be preserved in line with the Archival Policy of the Company.

DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

After the expiry of the statutory retention period, the preserved documents in any medium may be destroyed in such mode under any instructions approved by the department head(s), in the presence of a person authorized for the purpose, who shall ensure their destruction in accordance with practices that preserve the security of the information contained in them.

Destruction of documents as a normal administrative practice will also be followed for the records such as:

- i. recycle non confidential paper records
- ii. shred or otherwise render unavailable confidential paper records or
- iii. delete or destroy electronically stored data.

The Department will maintain a list of the records so deleted or destroyed, which shall be signed by the person authorized for the purpose.

The IT Department shall maintain a procedure to delete the electronic records that are no longer required to be retained, from back-up servers and for appropriately purging emails no longer required to be maintained.

The Company shall maintain a register of disposal of records in the custody of the Company Secretary and Compliance Officer of the Company, wherein the brief particulars of the records disposed of shall be entered.

The Company shall endeavour to preserve all the documents enlisted above in accordance with this Policy. However, the Company shall not be liable for any destruction of documents due to causes beyond its reasonable control, including, but not limited to, governmental actions, fire, civil disturbances, natural disasters, vis major or other acts of God.

SUSPENSION OF RECORDS DISPOSAL IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION/CLAIMS

In the event the Company is served with any notice for documents from any statutory authority or any litigation is commenced by or against the Company, then the disposal of documents including e-mail, which is related to the matter of notice/litigation, etc. shall be suspended until such time the matter is settled or resolved or disposed off. The Company Secretary and Compliance Officer shall immediately inform all employees of the Company for suspension of further disposal of Documents.

RECORD APPRAISAL

The Company shall at regular intervals carry out the appraisal of the records preserved as per this Policy. The purpose of the appraisal process shall be to ensure that the records are examined at the appropriate time to determine;

- i. whether or not they are worthy of archival preservation;
- ii. whether they need to be retained for a longer period as they are still in use; or
- iii. whether they should be destroyed.

The appraisal of records shall be undertaken only after the approval of the Company Secretary and Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

AMENDMENTS

The Board may subject to the applicable laws amend any provision(s) or substitute any of the provision(s) with the new provision(s) or replace this policy entirely with a new policy. However, no such amendment or modification shall be inconsistent with the applicable provisions of any law for the time being in force.

COMMUNICATION AND DISSEMINATION OF THE POLICY

Copy of this policy shall be circulated to all the Director of the Company and communicated to the employees. The new employees shall be informed about the policy.

This policy as amended from time to time shall be made available at the Website of the Company.

COMPLIANCE OFFICER

The Company Secretary of the Company shall be the Compliance Officer of the Company.
